

PACIFIC PLACE

Pacific Place is Seattle's premier urban street retail destination. Occupying an entire city block, Pacific Place is a dramatic five story urban retail center anchoring downtown Seattle's retail and central business districts.

THE PROJECT

- Pacific Place is a 339,000-square-foot, five-level retail, restaurant and entertainment destination in the heart of downtown Seattle.
- Pacific Place is undergoing a multi-million dollar renovation, scheduled to begin Q4 2017 with the first phase opening Fall 2018. The redevelopment plans include remodeling the center's common areas, along with a new South Lake Union facing grand entrance allowing for additional shop space and dining opportunities to better satisfy the strong global retailer demand in downtown Seattle.
- Pacific Place offers over 50 stores and restaurants featuring world class retailers such as Barneys New York, Tiffany & Co., Kate Spade New York, Lululemon, J.Crew and Din Tai Fung (Now Open).
- Pacific Place offers an assortment of high-profile apparel, accessory, jewelry and home/lifestyle stores that fill the concourse and the first three levels. The fourth level features destination restaurants and an 11 screen AMC Theatres complex.
