Peter Jun is Head of Global Investments for Capital Guidance Real Estate and Senior Managing Director of Investments for Madison Marquette. Mr. Jun works directly with the Executive Chairman of Madison Marquette to develop global investment strategies, build new investment vehicles and expand foreign capital relationships. In his role as Head of Global Investments, Mr. Jun evaluates and manages a range of global investment opportunities, currently with additional focus on Asian capital.

Prior to his current role, Mr. Jun served as Madison Marquette's Chief Operating Officer, as a member of Executive and Investment Committees, and as Executive Advisor to the Company's Board of Directors. Prior to joining Madison Marquette in 2007, he held executive positions at AXA Equitable, Booz Allen & Hamilton, and Accenture, where he worked closely with top executives at numerous leading global institutions in multiple sectors including investments, finance, real estate and retail.

Mr. Jun holds an MBA from the Yale School of Management and a BA from Cornell University.
