Steve is a 25-year veteran of the real estate investment and development business. Prior to joining Madison Marquette in 2006, Steve was a partner for 10 years in O’Neill Property Group (OPG), a large regional office, retail and multifamily developer backed by Prudential and Lubert Adler. He launched OPG’s development office in Washington, D.C., and oversaw more than $1 billion in development in New England and $1.5 billion in the greater Philadelphia region.

In addition, Steve was Executive Vice President of Huntmar Associates Ltd., a large regional office and industrial development company in the mid-Atlantic and, before that, a commercial broker at Hunter & Associates, a boutique Washington, D.C.-based firm focused on tenant representation for large build-to-suit office transactions.

Steve earned a B.S. from Northeastern University and began his career at the White House as Special Assistant to David Stockman, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget. He serves on the boards of Newport Bank and Newport Hospital/Lifespan and is actively involved with the Rhode Island Mentoring Foundation.
